3 Lies: I just finished the first book in this series—"3 Lies". Since I have a memory problem I am going to review each book in this series as I finished reading them or I won't be able to write a review on the individual books. Once I finish book 2 in the series, I will come back here and update this review—the same with book 3.

Helen Hanson has done it again! In the follow-up to 3 Lies, she further develops the characters of Masters and Beth and provides a non-stop action plot. Without giving anything away, like 3 Lies, it's impossible to put down. There is much technical and computer related material in this as well as 3 Lies, but the reader is never lost in techno-babble.
