More of a travelogue than a story, although it does have an engaging plot, Verne's 800 Leagues on the Amazon follows a family's descent by enormous log raft down almost the full length of the mighty Amazon River, from Peru to the Atlantic coast in Brazil, as they make their way to the last town on the river where a double wedding will take place.

800 Leagues on the Amazon by Jules Verne - Goodreads

The first portion of 800 LEAGUES DOWN THE AMAZON is marred by re-arranging the chronology of the narrative, so that Torres learns the secret of Joam Garral after an accidental visit to his plantation. Torres joins the trip later while it is in progress, in a manner that would have made anyone suspicious.
