Their brief and passionate lives were dominated by the elemental hatred that Morgoth bore them as the children of Húrin, the man who had dared to defy and to scorn him to his face. Against them he sent his most formidable servant, Glaurung, a powerful spirit in the form of a huge wingless dragon of fire.

The Children of Hurin by J. R. R. Tolkien | Audiobook ...

Prior to "The Hobbit" and "The Lord of the Rings," there was an original copy called "The Book of Lost Tales." One of lost stories, those stories of the First Age or what J.R.R. Tolkien alluded to as the "Senior Days," was "The Children of Hurin." It is a dim story, a story of a revile, yet it is a wild story, a moving story, a story whose closure you know yet you continue perusing at any rate since you're gotten in the grasp of an ace storyteller and he won't let ...
