The Witches Trinity Erika Mailman

"The Witch's Trinity is one of those mind-bending histories that make you wonder how many women in the 16th century hid in fear of being condemned for their healing powers. Erika Mailman superbly re-creates the terror of the women who lost, and the hope of those who managed to survive, the most egregious war of the sexes."

I have read a lot of novels within the horror genre, but Erika Mailman's work of historical-fiction, The Witch's Trinity, is one of the most horrific, terrifying, and powerful pieces I have ever read. Less than 300 pages, this book encapsulates the potential of evil within us as a species, and exemplifies the kinds of atrocities we - as human beings - are able and willing to commit against one another.
